II. The Delhi Police, vide letter No. 60219/CB-I/PHQ dated 20.12.2024, forwarded a representation submitted by Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) for cancellation of his transfer order or for keeping the transfer order in abeyance. The representation was examined in this Ministry and found to be devoid of merit; accordingly, the same was rejected by the Competent Authority. Thereafter, MHA, vide letter dated 30.12.2024, informed the Delhi Police that the representation of Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) had been rejected by the Competent Authority and also requested the Delhi Police to relieve the officer with immediate effect. Thereafter, the Ministry of Home Affairs, vide letter dated 23.05.2025, directed Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) to submit his medical records indicating the specific nature of his illness, prognosis of the said illness, and approximate period of recover, duly certified by the appropriate Medical Authority, to this Ministry within 01 week. However, the officer failed to furnish his medical records within the stipulated time-limit.

VII. The Ministry of Home Affairs, vide memorandum No. 15041/02/2024-UTS.I dated 03.07.2025, directed Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) to show cause as to why disciplinary proceedings should not be initiated against him for willful disobedience of transfer orders and for failing to report to the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh even after the expiry of more than 07 months from issuance of transfer order.

VIII. X. By the aforesaid chronology of events, it is clear that Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) has failed to report to the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh even after the expiry of more than 08 months from issuance of transfer order dated 13.12.2024 and more than 07 months after being relieved from the Delhi Police. The officer has claimed to be under medical rest during the intervening period; however, he has neither submitted any medical document to substantiate his claim of being unfit to report to the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh nor has he clarified the nature or prognosis of his illness till date.

The aforesaid acts of willful disobedience of orders, willful insubordination, grave dereliction of duty, gross indiscipline and prolonged absence from duty without any cogent reasons constitute gross misconduct which renders Dr. G Ramgopal Naik, IPS (AGMUT: 2017) liable for disciplinary action under the All India Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1969.
